27 Case No.:

28 DECLARATION OF SCOTT SOLI IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

I, Scott Soli, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am over the age of eighteen, am competent and of sound mind, and have personal knowledge of the facts set forth below and, if called on to do so, I could competently testify to those facts.

2. In February 2020, I was hired as the Chief Executive Officer of Lac Courte Oreilles

1 Financial Services, LLC (“LCOFS”), a wholly-owned limited liability company of the Lac Courte
2 Oreilles Band of Lake Superior Chippewa Indians (the “Tribe”), a federally-recognized Indian tribe
3 located in rural Wisconsin.

4 3. LCOFS has two wholly-owned subsidiaries Hummingbird Funds, LLC
5 (“Hummingbird”), and Miinan Funds, LLC (“Miinan”), which offer small dollar consumer loans over 6 the internet.

7 4. As Chief Executive Officer of LCOFS, I have direct oversight authority of Hummingbird
8 and Miinan.

9 5. The Tribe relies greatly on the funds generated by Hummingbird and Miinan to fund
10 Tribal government operations and essential Tribal government services for the benefit of the Tribe’s 11 enrolled members.

12 6. Shortly after assuming my current position, I launched an internal audit of LCOFS, 13 Hummingbird, and Miinan to assess business operations and determine the Tribe’s involvement in the 14 business and compliance with the transaction documents. I noted that the on-Reservation call center’s 15 role was limited to working customer accounts over 180 days past due, which are notoriously difficult to 16 collect. I sought to understand why the Tribe’s profit distribution remained low, despite the recent 17 business restructure. The audit uncovered that Cane Bay Partners VI, LLLP (“Cane Bay”) and its 18 affiliate servicing companies (Strategic Link Consulting, Esoteric, InfoTel, M. Mark High, Ltd. – the 19 “Servicing Affiliates”), had, among other things, improperly expensed certain fixed assets and failed to 20 provide adequate training and development of the on-Reservation call center.

21 7. Based upon this audit, it became evident to be that Cane Bay had deliberately neglected
22 proper oversight over the Tribe’s business accounts in order to maximize their cut of profits.

23 8. I then informed Cane Bay co-owner Kirk Chewning of the audit’s findings in an attempt 24 to resolve these issues. Mr. Chewning reacted first by admitting some improper expensing, but 25 ultimately with hostility and a refusal to work cooperatively.

26 9. At first, Mr. Chewning ignored my communications and then began offering general
27

1 denials. Eventually, Mr. Chewning admitted to billing errors on the part of Cane Bay and its Servicing
2 Affiliates.

3 10. In these communications (between Mr. Chewning and myself), I also inquired about 4 Strategic Link's failure to provide adequate training and develop the on-Reservation call center. Mr.
5 Chewning blamed this failure on Tribal members and their inability to meet servicing standards
6 Chewning set as a baseline before he had to transition jobs permanently on-Reservation

7 11. I now know Mr. Chewning's claims to be materially false, as LCOFS' on-Reservation
8 call center efficiently and profitably services the Tribe's portfolios and has generated millions in 9 collections without the Servicing Affiliates' assistance. I believe that Mr. Chewning intentionally
10 caused the trainings to fail to prevent Plaintiffs from taking over components of the business. As I
11 continued to identify and dispute these fraudulent charges, Mr. Chewning's bad faith actions worsened.
12 He continued refusing to provide financial statements, expense justifications, or other accounting details
13 for disputed charges.

14 12. In April 2022, after being unable to resolve the outstanding billing disputes with Mr.
15 Chewning, I requested he make LCOFS an offer to buy Defendants out of the contracts and end the 16 relationship. In response, Mr. Chewning agreed to put together a buy-out proposal.

17 13. Instead of negotiating a buy-out, , Cane Bay and its Servicing Affiliates sent a notice of a 18 formal dispute and an intent to mediate.

19 14. After LCOFS received this notice, I instructed LCOFS employees to gather portfolio data
20 held by Strategic Link Consulting. To date, Strategic Link has refused to provide the requested material
21 on the basis of unpaid invoices and has informed Hummingbird and Miinan that it is no longer
22 processing new leads for the portfolio, which means neither portfolio has issued a new loan since May 23 2022. This, in turn, means that the on-Reservation call center employees have much less to do. We 24 have had to send workers home as a result of Strategic Link's inaction. Additionally, Cane Bay and its 25 Servicing Affiliates have stopped providing underwriting services. Defendants are well aware of the 26 damage this inaction will cause to the portfolios in the short and long term.

1           15.    On a number of occasions, Mr. Chewning made representations implying he had an
2 ownership interest in and control over Dimension Credit. He represented differently after he failed to
3 arrange payment for vendor payables due from Hummingbird and Miinan. When these deferred
4 accounts payable ballooned to nearly $10 million, Mr. Chewning told LCOFS that it had to draw down
5 additional credit from Dimension Credit to pay for his mismanagement. When Plaintiffs and Dimension
6 Credit were unable to come to terms on an extension of the facility, Mr. Chewning told me he no longer
7 held an interest in Dimension Credit, and it was now held by billionaires. However, between 2016 and 8 early 2022, when I believe Mr. Chewning had an ownership interest in Dimension Credit, he personally
9 arranged for the overpayment of interest payments to Dimension at 20% instead of the 15% required by 10 the executed loan agreements.

11           16.    The ongoing actions of Mr. Chewning, Cane Bay, and its Servicing Affiliates have 12 caused real and significant damage to the business operations of the Hummingbird and Miinan.

13           17.    If these actions persist, LCOFS will either be required to shut down Hummingbird or 14 Miinan, or they will both simply die for failure to maintain operations. This loss will greatly impact
15 LCOFS's ability to make Tribal distributions that fund essential Tribal government services for its 16 members.

17
18 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
